Helpful Tax Saving Advice and Tips from Broward County Property Appraiser Lori Parrish

Dear Lori:

I just bought a new home in Broward County and need to file a new Homestead Exemption. What is "portability" and how do I apply for it?

S.D., Hollywood, FL (via email)

The "Save Our Homes" (SOH) Amendment in Florida's Constitution was intended to prevent homeowners from being taxed out of their homes due to rapidly rising real estate values.

As a result, Florida voters adopted a "portability" constitutional amendment in 2008. The portability amendment allows Homesteaded property owners to move their Save Our Homes (SOH) benefit — up to $500,000 — from one Homesteaded property to the next within the State of Florida. To be eligible for portability, the new Homestead must be established within two tax years of the "abandonment" of Homestead at the previously Homesteaded property. Portability applies to both upsizing and downsizing in value, based upon specified formulas. Portability may be used an unlimited amount of times and may be used for moves to anywhere within Florida. Portability does not require you to sell your previous home, but merely requires you no longer claim it as your permanent residence.

If you are applying for a new Homestead Exemption AND you held a Homestead Exemption on a previous property within the last 2 tax-years anywhere in Florida (not two years from the date you sell, or no longer reside on the property), you should also submit a Portability application along with your Homestead application. Note: a Portability application transfers any tax savings you have earned, but it does NOT transfer your Homestead Exemption from one property to another. You MUST first apply for a Homestead application in order to be eligible for Portability. Go to www.bcpa.net to begin the online Homestead application process and you will automatically be prompted to print and complete a Portability application if your application information indicates you held an eligible Homestead exemption on a previous Florida property.

You can also apply at one of our community outreach events listed under the "outreach calendar" on our homepage at www.bcpa.net or at our office at 115 South Andrews Avenue, Room 111 in Fort Lauderdale.
