Old Business:

Discussed liaisons with other communities and how to make them manageable.

No word from the Hammocks

Riverglen representative Jack Disher said he would not attend our meetings, he feels this is a conflict of interest since he works for the City.

New Business

Discussed asking the Sheriff office to give us a crime reports here once a month, instead of at each Homeowner Associations.

Some of the associations said the new target construction has damaged the streets and grass in the surrounding neighborhoods. We decided to contact the City manager to see if he could help. Bill Ganz said he would follow up.
